Paper 1 Controlled Test

May/June 2003

Additional Materials: Paper

15 hours

READ THESE INSTRUCTIONS FIRST

Write your Centre number, candidate number and name on all the work you hand in.

Choose one of the options given overleaf. Your work for this paper may or may not be related to work submitted for Components 2, 3 or 4.

Preparatory studies must be taken into the examination room and must be submitted for external assessment together with your final examination work. The entire submission will be assessed as a whole. The preparatory work must consist of not more than two sheets of paper (four sides) no larger than A1 (594 841 mm) size on which smaller works may be mounted. Candidates may work on smaller paper if they choose.

Your name, Centre number, candidate number and question number must be written clearly on the label provided and fixed in the top right-hand corner of the front of each piece of paper.

INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

This paper assesses your response to visual stimuli and involves direct observation from primary sources, recording, analysis and 2D and/or 3D development.

This document consists of 3 printed pages and 1 blank page.

Choose one of the following questions from any section.

From direct observation and personal experience record, analyse and develop your ideas.

Section A is appropriate for any Area of Study and may be chosen by candidates who prefer an open-ended starting point.

Section B is appropriate for any Area of Study and may be chosen by candidates who prefer a specific starting point.

Section C may only be chosen by candidates who prefer to be offered a specific design brief.

Section A

- 1 Backyard
- 2 Rhythms in natural forms
- 3 Companions
- 4 Shelves or storage
- 5 Interwoven
- 6 Keeping fit

Section B

- 7 Two or three flowering potted plants and some other containers, with a trowel, fork or secateurs and some compost on a sheet of newspaper.
- 8 An arrangement of several different items of footwear.
- 9 The whole or the upper half of a person seated in a high position in order to be viewed from below.
- 10 An entrance hall, lobby or vestibule.

- 11 Interpret the whole or any part of this extract.

The Kohlahs sold newspapers, several varieties of tea, sugar, bread and butter; also candles and pickles, torches and lightbulbs, biscuits and blankets, brooms and chocolates, scarves and umbrellas; then there were toys, walking-sticks, soap, rope and more. There was no grand system of inventory selection – just basic groceries, household necessities, and a few luxuries.
